

New Markets Tax Credits

Building Blocks for Kansas City's Future

Kansas City, Missouri Community Development CDE FastTrac® Training Scholarships

The Kansas City, Missouri Community Development CDE in partnership with the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation, First Step Fund, University of Missouri Kansas City Small Business Technology Development Center, and Hispanic Economic Development Corporation is offering scholarships to eligible residents of Low-income Communities in Kansas City, Missouri to participate in FastTrac® entrepreneurship training.

FastTrac® is an award-winning, comprehensive package of entrepreneur-learning programs and materials. FastTrac® provides existing and aspiring entrepreneurs with key business insights and skills, leadership experiences, and valuable networking and mentoring opportunities they need to start, grow, and lead businesses.

Participants in the FastTrac® programs will:

- Develop key business insights and skills
- Determine a business strategy
- Be coached by entrepreneurs and experts
- Tap into entrepreneurial resources
- Network with other entrepreneurs

Scholarships will be offered for FastTrac® First Step/Primer Paso, NewVenture™ and GrowthVenture™ trainings at the following training service providers:

Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation	First Step Fund	Hispanic Economic Development Corporation	UMKC Small Business Technology Development Center
4747 Troost Avenue Kansas City, MO 64110 (816) 454-4380	4747 Troost Avenue Suite 218 Kansas City, MO 64110 (816) 235-6116	2130 Jefferson Street Kansas City, MO 64108 (816) 221-3442	4747 Troost Avenue Suite 104A Kansas City, MO 64110 (816) 235-6769

Interested candidates should contact the participating service providers directly to determine eligibility, training programs offered, schedule and availability. Scholarships will be awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis so contact a local service provider as soon as possible to take advantage of this opportunity!

