

New Tools 2009

An Action Plan for Building an Economically Self-Reliant Kansas City

TINA vs. LOIS

The Great Battle for Kansas City's Economic Future

T.I.N.A vs. L.O.I.S

There Is No Alternative (to the global free market)

Locally Owned and Import Substituting
(Entrepreneurial competitive markets)

WHY?

Long-Term Wealth Generators

Fewer Destructive Exits

Better Labor Standards

Greater Chances for Success

Higher Economic Multipliers

Other Sectors Positively Impacted

LOIS Firms Win

BOLD VISIONS

Zero crime

Zero homicides

All solar powered residences

Free education on all levels

KCMSD being the #1 district in the nation

World class communities where the LIBRARY is center of intellectual exchange

A dome over Prospect Blvd (Truman-75th Street), center of business and entertainment

Zero dependence on government assistance

Zero poverty

Zero Homelessness

No one is neglected

100% voter turnout

LOIS firms to TINA firms

Cokethea

All residential property within the New Tools District
Cooperatively owned.

Jessica

Develop all LOIS firms within the New Tools District

Melanie

Urban farms that are cooperatively owned and economically sustain the residents of the New Tools District.

Glenda

All children within the New Tools District are taken by their fathers to open a savings account at the Community owned Community Development Credit Union (CDCU).