Police still seeking information two years after Lisa Irwin disappearance

As the second anniversary of the disappearance of Lisa Irwin approaches, the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children has released an age-progressed photo of the girl, and police continue to ask for tips.

Lisa was 10 months old when she went missing from her home in the 3600 block of North Lister. She was last seen about 6 p.m. October 3, 2011. She would be 3 years old on November 11. Kansas City Police and the FBI have investigated more than 1,770 tips in the case, including infant sightings across the nation and around the world.

Police continue to seek tips in the case and ask anyone with substantial information in Lisa's disappearance to please come forward by calling the TIPS Hotline at 816-474-TIPS (8477). Lisa has a birthmark on her right thigh and was last known to be wearing purple pants and a purple shirt with kittens on it. The attached flier depicts what she might look like today.

Because the Lisa Irwin disappearance remains an active, open investigation, Kansas City Police will not grant any further interviews.
